West Point, Va., November T.—Complete returns from West Point and Laneaville Precincts show the following results: For House, Willroy, 219; for Senate, Gravatt, 219; for Commonwheath's Attorney, H. I. Lewis, 229; no opposition, for supervisor, B. Turner, no opposition; for sheriff, Will Neal, 221. H. J. Palmer, who was opposed for treasurer by J. W. Fox, received a ma-jority in the county of 209.

Without Opposition.

[Spécial to The Times-Dispatch.]

[Lynchburg, Va., November 7.—A. B.
Martin, for House of Delegates in Campbell county, was elected to-day without opposition. All of the Campbell candidates nominated for county offices in the September campaign had no opposition. The vote was very light.

For Compulsory Education.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Lynchburg. Va., November 7.—By a vote of 646 to 111, Lynchburg to-day voted in favor of compulsory education, being the first city in Virginia to pass up—the question, under a law now hearly two years old. The question served to increase the vote, but even then it was not more than 20 per cent. of the qualified list.

H. C. Featherston, for the Senate, and T. D. Jennings, for the House, were cleated without opposition.
